Brand/Maker: Caroline Chu Inc,
Product: face products, various

While I have been on hiatus, I've been able to compile a list of products worthy of reviews. This line is one of them:

From our own contributing writer, Caroline Chu, comes her fabulous line of face products. While her product line includes a variety of fragrances, makeup brushes, cosmetics, and other skin care, one of my favorite products is the Glycolic Acid Purifying Facial Toner.

Within just a few days, my skin tone became more even, and any blemishes I had seemed to disappear. My skin is rejuvenated, and the light scent of the toner helps to calm yet waken the senses. No toner I've used thus far has been as effective.

Ingredients such as aloe help to soothe the skin, and the lemon juice helps to fight breakouts. This toner is great for normal to oily skin types, and helps to reduce the appearance fine lines. There are several active ingredients that will make your skin look and feel its best, including Marigold extract and alpha hydroxy acids.

Another product I highly recommend is the Seaweed Repair Cream. The marine ingredients help to retain water and other vital nutrients your skin can lose over the course of the day. I've noticed that my skin is at its best, and the oil is controlled. The blemishes I've had are few and far between, especially now that I've paired the toner and repair cream.

Price/Qty: $38.00/50ml

The final product in this review is the AHA Renewal Mask. Fruit extracts and green tea help to improve the skin as the mask exfoliates, purifies, and improves circulation. After using this [only use this 1-2 times per week] I noticed that my skin was more smooth, refreshed, and felt more clean than it ever has. This is a must-have for those who want flawless, smooth skin.
